Will Be Opened Next Year—The 800 acres of homestead land in the Waialeale tract, failure to open which by the territorial land board has been the subject of criticism in Hilo probably will be thrown open following the harvesting of the 1921 cane crop. Land Commissioner C. T. Bailey announced yesterday. An agreement between the Territory and the planters in regard to this land still is operative.

No Fair This Year—There will be no Territorial Fair this year, according to an announcement by Gerrit P. Wilder, chairman of the fair commission. It is practically certain that a fair will be held next year, however. Dr. H. B. Elliott has been chosen by the Hilo chamber of commerce as the Hawaii member of the commission.

HILO MAY GET MORE HOMESTEADS IN 1921

Commenting upon dissatisfaction expressed in Hilo because of failure by the land department to open up for homesteading the 800 acres of land not surveyed when the Waialeale tract was homesteaded, Land Commissioner Bailey said that very likely the area will be opened following the harvesting of the 1921 cane crop. The land is still being cultivated by the plantation under an agreement with the territory.

SUGAR COMPANY DODGES TAX BY LEASING ASSETS

NEWYARK, N. J., March 17.—Counsel for the Francisco Sugar Company, a New Jersey corporation, admitted yesterday that the company proposed to lease its assets to a Cuban corporation so that the Francisco company could evade the payment of federal income and excess profits taxes of approximately $1,000,000 annually.

The company's counsel contended that the action is legal in "taking advantage of the revenue laws giving the resident taxpayer an opportunity of earning profits in foreign countries through foreign corporations, paying taxes only on the profits. Thirty percent dividends have been promised stockholders for 1920 as a result of the proposed tax saving."

Catholic Prelate Denounces Brief Dress of Women

LONDON, Jan. 12.—Cardinal Amette a few days ago, in a pastoral letter, denounced the abbreviated garments for woman popularized by Parisian fashions. Father Bernard Vaughan, of London, who in the past has said many hard things of the follies and extravagances of the rich has now, in an interview, followed the Cardinal's example. He said:

"When I ask myself what is inspiring this tendency to nudity in women's modern costume my answer is it cannot be a rightful desire to promote the health of our debutantes because today's want of clothes is avagely exposing them to consumption and its kindred ailments, not by hundreds but thousands. So I am assured by competent authority. Our girls who ought to live to a ripe old age droop, drop and die like flowers unfed by warmth and sunshine. Improperly fed and immodestly dressed they defy all the laws of hygiene and down they go."

"Nor can the object in prevailing fashions be a love of the true and the beautiful for never did fashions as they do today so grievously militate against the canons of good taste and the laws of symmetry.

"I cannot but arrive at the conclusion that today's fashions are designed and cut not to drape the human figure and keep it warm, beautiful and comfortable, but on the contrary, it would seem that today's so-called costumes are created with the set purpose of awakening in man unholy desires and perhaps of fanning into fever flame those already kindled.

"How such conduct can be defended it is impossible for me as a Christian man to conjecture. Personally I feel quite sure that studied immodesty on the part of girls defeats its own ends. A decent man who intends to marry a girl and make her the queen of his heart and the mistress of his home is not going to choose for his partner 'till death do them part' a girl who has so little respect she does not even know how to clothe herself in decency."

YOKOHAMA MAID

DEBS FOR PRESIDENT BUT STILL IN PRISON

CHICAGO, March 10.—Eugene V. Debs, four times a candidate for the presidency, once on the Social Democratic ticket in 1900 and on the Socialist ticket in 1904, 1908 and 1912, was the only candidate mentioned for head of the Socialist ticket this year at a meeting of the national executive committee of the party held here yesterday. The committee decided to hold the national convention for the nomination of candidates for president, and vice president at New York, May 1. This will be the first since 1912. The committeemen reported a wide-spread demand for the nomination of Debs who is a prisoner in the federal penitentiary at Atlanta, pending the determination of his appeal from a conviction for violation of the espionage act.
